Wednesday, April 26.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. J. Wm. Thurmond made a business trip to Greenville Thursday.

Mrs. Hattie W. Adams spent several days in Charleston last week.

Mrs. W. R. Collin, Jr., of New York is the guest of Miss Sunie Talbert.

Mrs. J. R. Scurry is in Augusta visiting her daughter, Mrs. Roy Smith.

Miss Gladys Padgett spent a few days this week in Greenwood and Greenville.

Miss Annie Bee spent the weekend in Columbia as the guest of Mrs. Fred Swaffield.

Mrs. R. M. Scurry spent several days last week in Inman, Spartanburg county, visiting her parents.

Mr. John W. Holland of Chappell is here visiting his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Kinnaird.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hickerson and their little daughter, worshipped in the Lutheran church at Aiken Sunday.

Mrs. W. S. Boykin has returned to Edgefield after spending several months with her parents in La-Grange, Ga.

Mrs. John G. Edwards and little daughter spent Saturday and Sunday in Graniteville visiting her sister, Mrs. S. A. Morrill.

Mr. J. C. Walker who formerly resided in Edgefield spent Monday in Edgefield, having motored from Greenwood, where he now resides.

Mrs. Eva W. Ouzts spent several days last week in Greenville with her daughter, Miss Edith Ouzts of the G. W. C., who has been quite sick.

The Stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Abram Daitch Monday and left with them a little daughter. May she ever and always be a source of great joy to her parents.

Mr. C. R. Dobson and his daughter, Miss Lois Dobson, are visiting Mrs. Emma Dobson. Mrs. Dobson is at the bed side of her mother in Augusta, who is quite ill.

A large delegation of the Edgefield Daughters of the Confederacy will go to Saluda to attend a conference of the Edisto district. Mrs. Felham is secretary for the district.

Mr. and Mrs. Maner Lawton will accompany their daughter, Miss Gladys Lawton, to Columbia this afternoon to participate in the State high school declamation contest.

Prof. W. O. Tatum, Miss Gladys Lawton, Robert Ouzts, John Wells, Dixon Timmerman and William Hughes will attend the State high school contests in Columbia tomorrow.

The Huggins Store announces this week that a fresh shipment of Mrs. Duke's "Mayonnaise" has just been received. Remember that it bears the label, "Made in South Carolina."

Rev. A. T. Allen has accepted an invitation to preach the commencement sermon of Ridgedale academy, near Ward, next Sunday, which will make it impossible for him to attend the union meeting.

Mrs. Manly Timmons came down from Greenwood Saturday and remained until Tuesday in Edgefield with relatives and friends. She is always very affectionately greeted by her Edgefield friends.

The Corner Store calls attention this week to a new shipment of Character Cloth just received. Mr. Turner says this cloth is all that the word implies. The ladies should add it to their shopping list.

Friday evening of this week at 8:30 o'clock the "1922 Follies" will be given by Miss Ruth Tompkins' class. The price of admission will be 25 and 35 cents. A large crowd should greet the little dancers.

Mrs. Mamie N. Tillman, Miss Kellah Fair, Miss Emmie Lanham and Mrs. J. L. Mims attended a missionary conference of the western division which was held last Thursday at the Connie Maxwell Orphanage in Greenwood.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Griffin spent several days last week in Atlanta as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Orlando Sheppard. While in Atlanta Mr. Griffin purchased an artificial limb from an expert manufacturer of artificial limbs and will soon be able to lay aside his crutches.

Supervisor A. A. Edmunds says he will today move the camp of his road working gang from near Ropers to near Mr. Alvin Smith's farm south of Edgefield. As soon as the Edgefield Ropers road is completed he will then turn his attention to the Edgefield Meeting Street road.

A special meeting of the Edgefield chapter, U. D. C., will be held next Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. W. Fuller at 4:30 o'clock. At this meeting plans will be perfected for the proper observance of Memorial Day and every member of the chapter is urged to be present.

Sunday morning Rev. A. T. Allen appointed Mrs. Mamie N. Tillman, Mr. Orlando Sheppard, Mr. B. B. Jones and Mr. W. E. Lott as delegates to the union meeting at Bethany church. It is probable that with the roads now much improved others will go to Bethany from Edgefield.

Rev. G. W. M. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Nicholson and Mrs. F. F. Rainsford went to Greenwood to attend the Inter-Collegiate oratorical contest Friday. Mrs. Nicholson and Mrs. Rainsford went from Greenwood to Greer to spend the week-end with their sister, Mrs. Arthur Childress.

Mr. Claude T. Burnett announces his candidacy this week for the House of Representatives. He was born and spent his early boyhood days in Edgefield. His father moved away but after completing his education and being admitted to the bar Mr. Burnett came to Edgefield two or three years ago to practice law. He has a number of relatives in the western side of the county. As the campaign progresses he will give his view on the public questions.

Mr. Jake Wynne has purchased the stock of dry goods, clothing and shoes from Messrs Schneider and Steinberg of Augusta who bought the stock at the sale some time ago. Mr. Wynne will continue the business in the same store in the new hotel block. He has already a large stock block. He has already added a large stock of spring goods to the stock and will continue to replenish the store with the latest merchandise and solicits the patronage of the Edgefield people.

Hon. James O. Sheppard announces this week that he is a candidate for re-election to the House of Representatives from Edgefield county. Having served the people faithfully two years, he now has experience that will fit him for even more effective service. He has had a prominent part in enacting some needed legislation and has also had a part in preventing the enactment of unwise laws. Upon his record of the past two years Mr. Sheppard is willing to be judged by the people of his county.

Sunday Night at Trenton.

Sunday night at 8 o'clock the Trenton Methodist Sunday school will observe "Sunday School Day." A program is being arranged by a committee who has charge of training the children for this service.

Children's Day at Methodist Church.

Sunday morning at 11 o'clock the Methodist Sunday school will observe "Sunday School Day" with a suitable program. A committee has been at work drilling the children the past week and everything is being done to make the service attractive and helpful. The public is cordially invited to this service.

Call Meeting of W. C. T. U.

On Monday afternoon at 4:30 there will be a meeting of the W. C. T. U. when Mrs. Helen Nicholson, Mrs. W. L. Dunovant and Mrs. J. L. Mims will be hostesses at the home of the latter. Every member is urged to be present, as the trio teams will begin the membership campaign.

Mrs. W. L. Dunovant has been invited to give her experiences and impressions of the National Convention of the League of Woman Voters. At the close of the contest a reception will be held for all new members and the losing team will entertain.

FOR SALE: A limited quantity of Batte's Prolific corn for seed at $2.00 per bushel.
E. J. MIMS.

Pension Money Received.

All pensioners can now call on Judge of Probate, W. T. Kinnaird and receive their check. Those in Class A receive $65 and those in Class B receive $5675 this year. The annual appropriation for Confederate veterans and widows of veterans was reduced by $100,000 by the last legislature, which accounts for the amount being smaller than last year. A complete list of the pensioners of Edgefield county will be published in The Advertiser next week.

Engagement Announced.

The following announcement which appeared in the daily papers of last Sunday was read with pleasure in Edgefield: "Mrs. Annie E. Rives announces the engagement of her daughter, Gladys, to Mr. Thomas Benjamin Greneker, the wedding to take place early in June."

Much genuine interest is being taken in the approaching marriage of these two widely beloved young people. Both of them are deservedly popular because of their superior worth. As the days pass interest in their marriage will increase.

Dr. Lee's Revival in Chester.

We have before us a copy of Dr. R. G. Lee's church calendar of last Sunday in which the facts and figures concerning a revival meeting which Dr. Lee has just conducted in his own church at Chester are given. During the meeting 123 united with the church by profession of faith, 18 were received under the watchcare of the church until their letters could be procured from other churches and 5 united by letters from other churches, making in all 146 additions. In urging the building of a new house of worship, Dr. Lee states that by fall the church will be facing an unusual and embarrassing condition, its membership being 800 and the seating capacity of the present building being only 500.

Progressive Business Man.

Mr. W. P. Yonce of the Yonce Motor Company is not among those who sit with folded hands and say business has gone to the bow-wows, therefore it is no use to try. On the contrary, instead of waiting for something to "turn up" he is alert and active, using every means at his command to turn something. He is succeeding, too. Ford orders are already coming in faster than Ford cars can be had. His large advertisement in this issue is positive proof that Mr. Yonce is going after the business. The advertising campaign which he projected some time ago is bringing results. The easy payment plan of selling Fords which he tells our readers about this week is proving very popular, enabling persons of limited income to become owners of a car for business or pleasure for the family. He also calls attention to the splendid Ford Service which can be had at his garage. Both Ford owners and prospective Ford buyers should read Mr. Yonce's advertisements this week.

Lewis-Lyon.

Thursday afternoon, April 20th, Miss Mary Lewis and Mr. M. D. Lyon, Jr., were quietly married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Allen, of the Meeting Street community. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Brooke, the pastor of the bride. Only the immediate family and a few close friends were present. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Lyon left in an automobile for Augusta, where they boarded the train for Charleston. Several days were spent taking in the sights of the historic "City by the Sea." While there they motored to the celebrated Magnolia Gardens, one of the world's beauty spots.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyon returned to Edgefield Monday afternoon and have been very warmly greeted and congratulated by their Edgefield friends. While attending school in Edgefield as a sweet young girl Mrs. Lyon made many friends here who, besides her many relatives, are delighted that she has come to reside permanently among us. The happy groom towers in every respect above the average young man of his day and generation, being a young man of sterling qualities who is held in high esteem by all who know him. Mr. and Mrs. Lyon will be at home to their friends after May 1 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Fuller.

Our superior Ginger Ale is steadily increasing in popularity. Many dealers who have given it a trial will buy no other, as the consumers ask for it and will accept no substitute. Nothing better. A trial is all we ask.

Senior Class Party.

On Friday night, April 21, Robert Ouzts entertained a large number of his friends at a party in honor of his class, the senior class. The junior and senior classes were present besides several other high school boys and girls.

The guests arrived at 8:30 and instrumental and vocal music was the enjoyable feature of the next half hour. At nine, tally cards were distributed to those present. Fourteen three-minute dates followed to the boys and girls who were so lucky as to have their cards filled.

During the conversation, a delightful salad course, with iced tea, was served, after which the conversation was resumed until after 11 o'clock.

As the night was drawing to a close the guests departed declaring that they had never known time to fly so before and wishing that the clock might be turned back an hour, in order to prolong the happy moments of the evening.

When one is so fortunate as to be invited into this home for a party, the invitation is always accepted with great enthusiasm for "we always have a good time at Robert's parties," so a guest told Mrs. Ouzts, the lovely and charming hostess, as she bade her a fond farewell.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Mahoney were very welcome guests on this pleasant occasion.

Mrs. Walter Cantelou Entertains at Program Party for Miss Rosela Parker.

Mrs. Walter Cantelou's program party for Miss Rosela Parker was a lovely event on last Friday afternoon.

On the wide veranda the guests were invited by Mrs. Claude Lyon and Miss Genevieve Norris to register in the Bride's Book, writing a good wish for Miss Parker, whose marriage on May 24th to Mr. Leon Warren is of great interest to their wide circle of friends.

Miss June Rainsford and Miss Justine Cantelou welcomed the visitors at the double front doors, Mrs. B. B. Jones conducting them into the reception room where the hostess and honoree with Mrs. Leslie Kernaghan, Miss Mamie Dunovant and Misses Ruth and Marjorie Tompkins received.

After the guests arrived, the following delightful musical program was enjoyed:

"Adoration," a violin solo by Miss Lois Mims, accompanied by Miss Ruth Lyon on the piano. Miss Lyon played the accompaniment also for Mrs. M. B. Tucker, who sang "Mavis."

Miss Margaret May's songs "Serenade" and "The Nightingale" was followed by Mendelssohn's Wedding March, played by Mrs. Hugh Mitchell, which was the signal for little Virginia Holland to appear scattering rose petals from a dainty basket. Down the rose strewn way came tiny Jessie Huggins in bridal array escorted by Master Motte Kernaghan. After them Dot Dunovant guided in a tea wagon laden down with fragrant roses, from which fell numberless miniature wedding bells. Each guest caught a bell, pulling out from the mass of roses a pink heart on which the honoree's and her fiancé's initials with the date of the wedding confirmed the interesting news.

The guests repaired to the dining room where Mrs. J. D. Holstein, Jr., Mrs. W. W. Adams and Misses Sophie and Sadie Mims served a delicious sweet course.

Quantities of fragrant spring blossoms and graceful creep vines were used to decorate the spacious old Cantelou home and the party which announced such an interesting event was the beginning of a series which are to be given for the beloved honoree.
